

1. Which of the following best distinguishes drama from prose and poetry?

- A. Use of figurative language
- B. Emphasis on narrative structure
- C. Performance-based nature with dialogue
- D. Presence of a central theme

*Answer: C

2. In poetry, the term “enjambment” refers to:

- A. A pause at the end of a line
- B. The rhyme scheme of a stanza
- C. The continuation of a sentence without a pause beyond the end of a line
- D. A dramatic monologue

*Answer: C

*3. Which of the following is not a key characteristic of prose fiction?*

- A. Stage directions
- B. Character development
- C. Narrative voice
- D. Plot structure

*Answer: A

4. A tragedy in drama is best defined as:

- A. A play where all characters die
- B. A play that ends in confusion
- C. A play that portrays human suffering leading to catharsis
- D. A play that uses poetic dialogue

*Answer: C

*5. Which of the following is most likely to be found in a poem but not in a prose narrative?*

- A. Symbolism
- B. Meter and rhythm
- C. Character conflict
- D. Flashback

: *Answer: B

6. What literary term describes a character in drama who contrasts sharply with the protagonist to highlight qualities of the main character?

- A. Antagonist
- B. Foil
- C. Flat character
- D. Static character

*Answer: B

*7. A first-person unreliable narrator is most commonly found in which genre?*

- A. Epic Poetry
- B. Tragic Drama
- C. Prose Fiction
- D. Lyrical Poetry

*Answer: C

8. The term “soliloquy” is used in drama to describe:

- A. A speech delivered to another character
- B. A speech delivered in poetry form
- C. A speech made alone on stage revealing inner thoughts
- D. A long dialogue between two characters

*Answer: C

9. Which of the following best differentiates a lyric poem from a narrative poem?

- A. Use of dialogue
- B. Presence of characters
- C. Focus on emotional expression
- D. Absence of rhyme

*Answer: C

10. What distinguishes modern drama from classical drama?

- A. Absence of tragic flaws
- B. Focus on gods and fate
- C. Emphasis on internal conflict and realism
- D. Use of verse form only

*Answer: C